PRAYER

Please continue to pray for those who are unwell or going through difficult times. Susan is still experiencing problems with her hearing, Rowland's long term health issues continue, Iris has been struggling with severe pain for several months, Ray & June often have health concerns and Rachel Smith's debilitating condition often impacts on her daily life. There may be others you know of who are suffering in different ways. Do pray for them all.

Our Brothers and Sisters in many lands are suffering severe persecution. Many are imprisoned without charge or trial, some are kept in shipping containers in the heat of the day and the freezing cold of the night. Many are under threat of violence from militant groups or even from their own families. Their crime? Naming Jesus as their Lord. These are individuals, Children of God, who need our daily prayers.

Prayer room

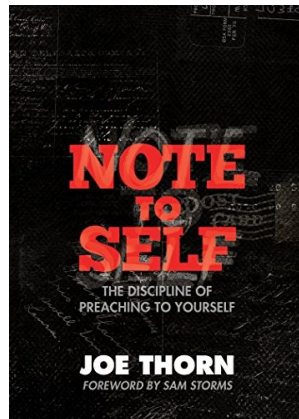

The Deacons' vestry is open after the Sunday morning service each week for private or personal prayer. If you would like someone to pray with you, please have a word with either David or Sylvia Chalkley who will arrange for this to happen.

BOOK REVIEW

The discipline of preaching to yourself

Note to Self is a practical introduction to this daily discipline.

Pastor Joe Thorn delivers fifty brief, devotional chapters that model preaching the gospel to ourselves and its practical implications. Readers will be challenged by the book's direct, personal exhortations to apply the law and the gospel to their own lives

Reminder - 'Breathe Easy' (an offshoot of the British Lung Foundation) use the Church hall on the first Tuesday afternoon of each month.

WELCOME TO WIGMORE EVANGELICAL FREE CHURCH

A Challenge for us all

Donald Trump is one of the most controversial and divisive characters in world politics in a very long time, but definitely in my lifetime. Having said that though, his policies often point towards the desire to reinstate Christian principles back into the heart of Americans.

This was seen last month where he reinstated the observation of a National Day of Prayer, to be held annually in America. Although a commendable step towards a more 'Christian' nation, the idea of holding a National Day of Prayer is not new. On 26th May 1940, King George VI urged men and women up and down the country to pray for the deliverance of the British Army that was trapped in France.

Hundreds of thousands of people headed to churches and chapels, with the purpose of praying for the soldiers who were trapped at Dunkirk. The original estimation was that the Royal Navy would be able to get 20-30,000 men off the beaches, but after the evacuation was complete, that number stood at more than 300,000.

The National Day of Prayer, one of the largest demonstrations of corporate prayer that we have ever seen, was heard by God.

But that was over 70 years ago, and prayer meetings up and down the country are getting smaller, but are they more important than we give them credit for?

When Paul was in prison, writing to the Philippians he said, "I know that through your prayers and the help of the spirit of Jesus Christ, this will turn out for my deliverance" (Phil 1 v 19).

But Paul was not just talking of an individual's prayers in their private time, but also of the prayers of the church for Paul, about the interceding prayers of the Philippians. This leads to the question that we must ask ourselves, can we insert the name of this church into the sentence: "I know that through the prayers of Wigmore Free Church" God will act?

I urge you to join us on Tuesday nights here, at the church, between 7.30-9pm, to join together with your brothers and sisters in prayer and to study God's word further.

Wisdom from the Past

And suddenly a voice came from heaven, saying "This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased."

Matt. 3 v 17.

God's goodness is exhibited to us in Christ; from this fountain we are to draw whatever refers to our salvation and happiness of life.

John Calvin in Commentary on Hosea p135

One's view of Christ will determine in large part his/her view of all the Christian doctrines and manner of life.

in Handbook of Evangelical Theology p 65/66*
